

RYAN M. WEEKS

515-419-1313 WEEKSCARPENTRY@HOTMAIL.COM

A detail-oriented construction professional with experience as a finish carpenter, electrician and project manager.

OVERVIEW of skills

- accurately measure materials to be cut and installed; plan and build out custom finish carpentry solutions
- an eye for detail when making measurements and fitting structures.
- ability to read electrical schematics, wiring diagrams, and blueprints
- well versed in writing estimates with Xactimate
- solid ability performing project management for insurance losses
- strong communication skills

WORK EXPERIENCE

Owner/Finish carpenter

Weeks Carpentry 2003 - Present

- Custom home interior woodworking | crown moulding | wainscot | built-ins | trim
- Successfully measure, plan and build out custom finish carpentry solutions
- Meet with homeowners/general contractors estimating and bidding out jobs
- Stay on schedule at all times producing high quality workmanship

Reconstruction Estimator/Construction Project Manager/Finish Carpenter

American Restoration 2009 - 2011

- Scope residential and commercial structural losses
- Estimate damages with Xactimate
- Determine labor requirements and create construction schedule
- Manage each project from start to finish ensuring project moves according to schedule
- Inspect and review projects to monitor compliance to building and safety codes
- Negotiate revisions/additions to project as needed
- Button up each job personally -- providing skilled expertise as needed

Field Merchandiser

Masco Corporation 2001 - 2003

- Service current customer base by maintaining shelf-space, sales aids and displays
- Travel to Lowes stores in designated territory; build out sales displays as needed
- Track inventory utilizing proprietary software

Electrician

Schmidt Electric 1996 - 2001

- Completed residential and commercial electrical projects as assigned
- Successfully completed Associated Builders & Contractors Electrical Apprentice program